EIGHT MORE DAYS

And the Advocate's Big Atlantic City Contest Will Begin--A Large Number of Girls Have Been Nominated and Everything Points to an Intensely Interesting Contest.

The Mt. Sterling ADVOCATE will announce the young ladies who have already entered the big Atlantic City Contest in our issue of June 7th. Ladies who are considering the matter of entering this big contest should not hesitate longer for it will be of positive benefit to the candidacy of any aspirant to be able to make the first appeal for subscriptions to their friends before others have received their promises. By the division of this section into districts it will be seen at a glance that the young ladies of every district, no matter how remote from this city, have exactly the same chance to win a free trip on this big Eastern Tour providing they win out in their own particular districts. This affords an equal chance to all which most of the contests do not do.

STILL TIME TO ENTER.

There is still time to enter. Get in the contest and get in to win. Your friends will help you as soon as they see you are in the contest to win. Please remember that you will receive a bonus of 3,000 votes if you enter before our issue of June 7th in which the names of those already nominated will be published in the ADVOCATE. Remember that you will have to compete with those in your own district, but you can get subscriptions and votes everywhere. We want to get all the candidates started off even in our issue of June 7th, so get busy and you can be one of the first to enter and your chances for coming out ahead are better. You can win in this contest if you go into it with that determination.

MUCH INTEREST MANIFESTED.

There is much interest manifested in this big contest. Every day we are busy explaining details. A large list of the most prominent girls in this section have already entered and have the bonus 3,000 votes to their credit. The wide spread interest that is already manifested is the best evidence of what a big success it promises to be. It is now the talk of this section and when the names of the young ladies are published, they will be off in the race and it will be interesting until the close and the winning girls are named.

Everybody has an equal chance, so get in and win the trip. You will never regret it. A large number of young ladies who have not as yet entered the contest are being urged by their friends to enter at once and they should not let a chance of a life time pass without making an effort to win this trip, and they can win, if they go in with determination. Watch for our list. There is going to be some class to this contest, and more class to the trip that will be one never to be forgotten by those who are fortunate enough to win.

THE DISTRICTS.

During the time of the contest, the territory covered by the ADVOCATE has been divided into five districts, thus making the winning of the race much easier for the candidates.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

J. H. Gillaspie, of this county, and Miss Frances Holloman, of Munford, Texas, were united in marriage at Lexington, Ky., last Tuesday at the residence of Rev. Mark Collis. There were only a few relatives and friends present to witness the ceremony. Miss Holloman who is known to many of our people, possesses the many beautiful traits of character that go to make the home life a joy and pleasure, and we are glad to welcome her to our midst. Mr. Gillaspie has been a resident of this county for many years and is the proprietor of the famous Bourbon Chief Stock Farm and a gentleman deservedly popular and one who numbers his friends by his acquaintances. We join their many friends in wishing them happiness.

JOSEPH CLAY VAN METER

Candidate For the Democratic Nomination For State Treasurer, Whose Nomination Seems Assured.

While Mr. Van Meter bears no political scars as a veteran in heated political struggles, yet there is no man in the Democratic field who is a more loyal supporter of the party. He hails from Fayette county, whose family record as defenders of the principles of Jeffersonian Democracy is unquestioned. Mr. Van Meter was reared on his father's (B. F. Van Meter) farm in Clark county, who, at one time was among the most noted shorthorn breeders of America, and has a natural taste for agricultural pursuits. He was educated in Lexington (State University) and during his years of schooling, manifested great interest in the study of agriculture and quite naturally he engaged in the breeding of such stock for which Kentucky is noted.

A consistent and life-long Democrat, now in the prime of manhood, standing high with the members of the party with which he is affiliated, his natural ability and unusual degree of personal popularity, which count a great deal in public life, leads us to declare that his selection for the office of State Treasurer would meet with a unanimous endorsement of the party in all sections of the State.

We are free to confess that the gentleman from Fayette presents a most favorable claim, and his clean record as a Democrat, his freedom from entangling alliances, his avoidance of factional strife in all his past career, places him in the forefront of strong, influential candidates, whose personal reputation and popularity will add strength to the ticket, and make Democratic victory more certain.

Just such a man as Mr. Van Meter is worthy of favor from the party he represents, and his candidacy for that important office will spell "victory" for the party.

He nor no one by his name has ever asked or held public office. He announced last September and has already canvassed more than one hundred counties since that time and expects to visit every county in the State before the primary.

Baby Beef.

Young fat cattle are now in great demand. The trouble with most farmers who raise yearlings is that they do not feed them the first year, only let them run on pasture and the first winter carry them over on dry fodder and hay. The fact is, this is the time the calves should be fed all they will eat. The fact is, from the time they are weaned from milk, say at six weeks of age, they should be taught to consume all they will eat, the idea of trying to get them along on as little as will support them results only in a stunted scrub. A calf should be taught to eat grain before it is weaned and the ensuing summer it should have a regular and full allowance of grain, corn, oats, bran or cottonseed meal so as to develop the whole frame and at all times should be what is called fat. Most farmers would call this a waste of feed, but a good trial would change their minds. It is the best form of utilizing feed. Then after pasturing and feeding all summer the calves should be put in a close feed lot and fattened on clover or alfalfa hay, corn, cottonseed meal and silage if one has the silo. In this way a yearling can be made to bring twice what it would otherwise be worth. This method is worked out by many farmers in the northwest where the summers are short and winters severe. In the central West and South where the climate is mild the problem should be easily solved. It is practical and the money and time spent are well invested. Instead of marketing thin yearlings, weighing six or seven hundred pounds and bringing 3½c, they should be fitted to 1,000 pounds or more and fetch 6 to 7 cents. The market for baby beef will never be overdone.

FRECKLES GONE.

"Simple Remedy From Wm. S. Lloyd Removed Them," Says Society Lady.

The best skin specialists told me that nothing would remove my freckles and that I would carry them to my grave," said a well known society woman, "but I fooled them all with a new drug, othine—double strength, that I bought at Wm. S. Lloyd's, which cleared my skin and gave me a fine complexion."

The action of othine is really remarkable, for when applied at night, many of the freckles disappear entirely by morning, and the rest have begun to fade. An ounce is usually all that is needed, even for the worst case.

Be sure to ask Wm. S. Lloyd for the double strength othine, as this is sold under a guarantee or money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

Cow Makes Butter Record.

Minneapolis.—Anouncement is made by Professors T. L. Haacker and C. P. Grout of the Minneapolis Agricultural School that the world's record for thirty-day butter production has been captured by a Minnesota cow. The new champion is Pieterje Maid Ormsby; she is a 6-year-old Holstein.

During thirty days in April she produced 145.66 pounds of butter from 2,567.8 pounds of milk. The best previous record, held by Canantha Fourth Johanna, owned by Gillette & Son of Rosendale, Wis., was 138.5 pounds of butter. For a seven-day test, the Irwin animal made a new Minnesota record, with 35.56 pounds of butter, and this test is only second to the world's record.

Greatest possible precautions were taken to secure an accurate test, and the result cannot be challenged. Edward Field of Minneapolis, a student in the State Agricultural college, conducted the test, remaining in the barn day and night for the thirty days. He sat by each milking. The cow was fed and milked four times a day, at 5:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., 5:30 p.m., and 11:30 p.m. At each milking Mr. Field weighed the pail and sat beside the milker to see that nothing could be slipped into the pail. When the pail was filled he weighed it and then took a sample to test it for butter fat. To insure complete accuracy, the samples were retested by Professors Haacker and Grout.

The champion dairy cow of the world is a wonderful animal. At the conclusion of the test she weighed 1,520 pounds, a loss of more than eighty pounds during the thirty days, but she is still in superb physical condition.

Pieterje Maid Ormsby is valued at $10,000, and one of her calves was sold recently to a New York breeder for $7,500.

Job printing is our business, let us do yours. We will give you something new and different from what you have been getting and at the same price too. Give us a trial.

THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE.

Very little is being said about the School Bond Issue which will be submitted to the white voters of our city on June 9th, and we are somewhat disappointed at the apparent indifference with which it is being received. Our only apology for so often bringing it to the attention of our readers, is our earnest desire to see the issue carry. Every citizen owes it to his family, and if he has none, to himself, as a public-spirited man, to show enough interest in the subject to go and vote for another school building. We need it, all agree, so let's have it. The way to get it is to carry this bond issue and the way to insure that result is for every white voter who favors educational advantages to not fail to be on hand to vote for it. Don't leave it to your neighbors and then complain if the issue fails. In that case, you alone will be to blame.

PREPARING FOR BRICK STREETS.

We are very glad indeed to see the Mt. Sterling Water, Light & Ice Company and the Old Kentucky Telephone & Telegraph Company removing their poles from the ditches and placing them inside the curbing so as not to interfere with the brick streets. As a matter of fact the poles should never have been placed outside the curbing. Both companies, when requested to do so by the city, promptly began making the change and by cementing around the poles are making a clean and attractive job of it.

REPUBLICAN INCONSISTENCY.

Our friends, the Republicans, are in a peculiar and embarrassing attitude at Washington these days. A Democratic House promptly passed President Taft's Reciprocity Bill and now we see Republican Senators doing everything they can to defeat it.

We believe it was Mr. Bryan who said that Republican Party Platforms are like the platform of a passenger coach, in that they are made to get in on, but not to stand on.

THE BLACKBURN SPEECH.

Our old friend Senator Jo. C. S. Blackburn certainly disappointed the wise ones last week at Owensboro. In place of giving the Republicans some campaign material to work on, he confined himself to some sound advice the party will do well to heed and made a strong plea for harmony. A few more such speeches will do much toward cinching the result in November.

We imagine the people of Paris will readily agree with Dr. Bruner that Gov. Willson, as usual, blundered in vetoing the Bank Examiners' Bill.

Who said they wouldn't break dirt on the Government building site this year?

W. T. Fitzpatrick Declared to Be of Unsound Mind.

W. Taylor Fitzpatrick, one of the wealthiest men and largest land owners in the county, was declared to be of impaired mind in the County Court here Saturday and the court will appoint a trustee to take charge of his affairs. The trial was the result of Fitzpatrick revoking the power of attorney he had given last fall to Thomas Fitzpatrick and vesting the power in John and Sam Greenwade, two other nephews.

The result of the case leaves the latter in control, but as soon as a trustee is named it is said a suit will be brought to set aside the deed of trust which Fitzpatrick made to the Greenwade boys. Mr. Fitzpatrick is one of the best known men in the State and for years was engaged in the stock business, running the Mt. Sterling stockyards, one of the largest in the country.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given to the legally qualified white voters of the Mt. Sterling Graded Common School district, that an election will be held at the School Building in said district, on Maysville street, in Mt. Sterling, Ky., on FRIDAY, JUNE 9TH, 1911, BETWEEN 8 O'CLOCK A. M. AND 4 O'CLOCK P. M. for the purpose of taking the sense of the legally qualified white voters of said district on the question, whether the trustees of said white graded common school district shall issue and sell bonds of said district in any amount not to exceed the limit allowed by law, and under no circumstances for an amount greater than FIFTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, for the purpose of providing suitable grounds, school buildings, furniture and apparatus for said district.

Winchester Dedicates New Catholic Church.

Sunday, May 21st, was one of the most memorable events of Catholicity in Winchester. It was a day that had been long anticipated by the members of St. Joseph's parish. The event was certainly celebrated with much joy and happiness by the sixty-five families composing its membership. The dedication of this beautiful little church took place at 10:45 a. m., the Rt. Rev. Camillus P. Maes, D. D., Bishop of Covington, officiating.

AND THE

Great Hoosier Cabinet Club

Opened for Membership

Monday

The Hoosier Club will be open to the ladies of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county all this week. We have heralded the coming of the Hoosiers for some time and much interest has been shown in their arrival. Now the great display is going on, and we are enrolling members in the Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet Club.

Nearly every woman who has seen the Hoosier Cabinet falls in love with it. Eleven members have already enrolled. The club is a splendid success. We are forming this great Hoosier Club for the sole purpose of allowing twenty-five people to buy one of the celebrated Hoosier Cabinets—exactly like picture—at the club rate of One Dollar at the time of entering her name, and for a few weeks—in other words, until the cash price of the cabinet has been paid.

One Dollar a Week

The club is open this week only. Anyone on entering her name receives immediate delivery of her cabinet. It begins at once—saving hundreds of steps each day. Only twenty-five members will be admitted.

Saves Miles of Steps

The Hoosier saves miles of steps for tired feet. It saves stooping over bins and barrels. It saves reaching up to high shelves. In one spot forty inches wide it groups everything you need in preparing a meal. It enables you to sit down and work in comfort.

To the Farmers' Wives

who have more kitchen work to do than any women in town, we extend a special invitation. The Hoosier enables you to get your work done in much less time. Your husband has his modern tools for work on the farm. They cost many times what the Hoosier will cost, and yet the Hoosier saves you a great deal more labor. You ought to have this labor saving cabinet in your kitchen. A little butter and egg money will soon pay for your cabinet.

One Hoosier Cabinet Free

The free Hoosier Special will be given away to some lady at the close of the club—that is three o'clock Saturday afternoon—May 27th. No one has to pay anything to get this cabinet. We simply will give this cabinet to one of the ladies who visits the store this week. Come in. Learn our plan without the slightest obligation.

If you have pain in the back, urinary disorders, dizziness and nervousness, it's time to act and not time to experiment. These are all symptoms of kidney trouble, and you should seek a remedy which is known to act on the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use. No need to experiment. It has cured many stricken cases in Mt. Sterling. Follow the advice of a Mt. Sterling citizen and be cured yourself.

Thomas Holland, 52 E. High Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally for two years and I consider them an excellent remedy. Doctors pronounced my trouble lumbago and I spent hundreds of dollars in an unsuccessful effort to find relief. Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at F. C. Duerling's Drug Store, did a world of good. They removed the backache, and regulated the passages of the kidney secretions, in fact, entirely cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Health and Production of Hogs.

The victory of vaccination over hog cholera has become effective at a time when market prices have been exerting a powerful stimulus to breeding. So long as cholera baffled scientists, disastrous experiences with the disease were frequently recited by corn farmers to explain their refusal to breed hogs. One loss of a drove of hogs, representing a crop of corn, lasts a cautious man a long time. Losses are now less frequent and nearly preventable.

In some cases the application of the serum-simultaneous treatment has not been all that was expected, but hopes for the rescue of hogs where herds were already caught in the throes of disease probably have been too strong. The treatment for cholera is preventive, not curative. Rigid tests where prevention only was involved have uniformly proved its efficacy. It is early to look for tangible results in the general health of the hogs of America, for the method of treatment was worked out only three years ago and has been exploited in comparatively limited fashion. Still the statistics gathered by the Department of Agriculture show the loss of hogs by disease last year only amounted to 43.5 head out of every 1,000 in the country, which is the lightest loss ever reported and 16 per cent. smaller than the last ten year average.

Simultaneously with this report comes the government estimate that the number of brood sows is 10 per cent greater than a year ago. Hogs have been offered by far the most profitable route for converting corn into meat during the last two years. At a price $3.50 per ewt. lower than a year ago they are still adding 50 per cent to the price of corn. The prospect is for a substantial increase in the number of hogs this year. Brood sows are mostly young, but numbers, favorable farrowing weather and reduction of disease will count.

The lesson taught by the panic three years ago, which led farmers to sacrifice their breeding stock, will soon be forgotten by those who count only present cost. When bottom is again struck by the market they will conclude again that it has gone down to stay. Those who trail along after the market, getting in at the top and out at the bottom, do not seriously affect the profits of steady breeders and feeders in the long run. The increased assurance of healthy herds will, however, make the position of every swine-raiser still more secure.

THE STANDARD OIL DECISION.

New York World: This decision should mean the end of test cases. Big Business knows what the law is and it has very able attorneys who know what the law is. If it deliberately violates the law let it be treated like any other criminal.

Springfield Republican: It is now in order for the business of the country to gather together its energies and start ahead again in the warning simply that its combinations of capital must keep their extent within due and reasonable bounds.

New York Tribune: Chief Justice White's opinion in the Standard Oil case clarifies the uncertain and defines the vague phrases, giving a common sense explanation of the law, which leaves it stronger just because it is no longer subject to ridicule as impracticable and destructive of all kinds of business big and little alike.

Washington Post: It is not probable that serious effects will follow in the business world, since the Standard is given plenty of time to readjust its affairs to conform to the law, and other corporations which are so constituted as to form combinations in unreas-substantial violations of the real intent of the Sherman act.

New York Times: The legitimate business of the country, which has so long trembled under the prohibitions erroneously attributed to it, will not now stand in fear of its provisions. The decision of the court and Justice White's illuminating opinion have freed the commerce of the country from the terror that has long paralyzed its energies.

New York Press: Yet this sweeping and unalterable judgment denouncing the oil monopoly as a burdensome and criminal conspiracy against the people brings us a step nearer to the sound policy based on the axiom that "guilt is always personal." It gets us closer to the time when the unscrupulous and law-breaking monopolist will be effectively discouraged in his criminality by a taste of imprisonment at hard labor in the stripes of the common convict.

New York Sun: The Supreme Court interpreted the law as it found it. Its duty has been simply to interpret and apply the law. The wisdom of that law is for the Legislature, and the decision just rendered necessarily imposes a plain obligation upon Congress to determine whether the absolute prohibition of restraint of trade is in accord with a state of society whose agencies of steam and electricity inevitably tend to the multiplication of power and efficiency by concentration. The Sherman anti-trust law has its value as well as its mischief. Upon Congress will thus rest the duty of adopting it to the business necessities of a nation, which, if not unduly shackled by unwise and archaic laws, should remain the greatest commercial nation in the world. It is inconceivable that such a nation will commit hari-kari.

A Welcome Change

Smoke curling up from the farmhouse chimney as the men are coming in from the fields, gives a pretty suggestion of a good supper and a comfortable home. But it also means a hot, tired woman, working hard over a blazing fire.

Your wife can escape this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

A New Perfection keeps a kitchen many degrees cooler than any other range, yet it does all a coal or wood range can do. It saves time, labor and fuel. No wood to cut; no coal to carry; no ashes; no soot. With the New Perfection oven it is the best cooking device you can find anywhere.

Stomach Troubles
Cured by Vinol

HERE IS PROOF

"I suffered so long from stomach trouble and indigestion, that I lost flesh rapidly — VINOL cured me after everything else had failed. It strengthened my digestive organs — gave me a hearty appetite, and I can eat anything without the slightest distress. I do not believe anything equals VINOL for stomach trouble and indigestion."

W. E. WATERHOUSE,
Portland, Me.

Mr. Thos. G. Wallace, of Detroit, Mich., writes, "I suffered for years from a chronic stomach trouble. VINOL entirely cured me after everything else had failed."

It is the curative medicinal elements of the cod's liver, combined with the strengthening properties of tonic iron contained in VINOL, which makes it so successful in restoring perfect digestion, and at the same time building up the weakened run-down system.

Try a bottle of VINOL with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Horse News.

With an apologetic impulse for the mediocre character of his mares many a farmer makes the serious mistake of breeding them to an inferior stallion with a low fee. The idea seems to be that the mares are not worthy of a better mate, and that colts of more than ordinary quality cannot be expected from such dams. On the contrary, every mare deserves to be mated with a high-class stallion. The well-bred stallion has a profound influence on the character of the offspring. By reason of his long line of ancestry, resembling himself in form and quality, he stamps his image on the foal much more strongly than the mongrel mare with her varied lines of inheritance. It follows that a great step in the improvement of the type of horses is made even by the first cross of good draft blood on common mares. Ordinarily the extra cost in the service is only $10 to $15. The extra value of the colt at maturity is likely to be five or ten times that much. Every community needs the services of a first-class draft stallion if it is to raise the kind of horses most useful for farming and most profitable for the market. There are still some excellent stallions for sale. Every one of them should find a location this spring where his services may be obtained by mare-owners. His influence should be extended to the utmost in the character of the horses that will finally grow up around him. Many a location has become famous among horse-buyers for the high character of its stock, following the influence of some prepotent stallion mated at first with very common mares. If there is no stallion now within reach, a few farmers can club together and buy one of the right kind, or one of the number, assured of the patronage of his neighbors, can make an investment alone and feel quite secure in the venture.

It costs less per acre and per bushel to grow corn in the north-central states just west of the Mississippi River than in any other section of the country. The secret is largely in the small outlay for fertilizers on account of soil richness, and also in the efficient and cheap preparation of the broad fields with large implements and big teams. The average size of the cornfields on which reports were secured from this section was 42 acres, which was 50 per cent greater than for any other section. Nearly all of the work except cultivation and gathering is then done with three and four horse teams.

The cost of the work alone of the corn crop was least in Kansas, $5.70 per acre. Oklahoma had a lower land rent so that it stood lowest in total cost at $8.59 per acre. The lowest cost per bushel, exclusive of rent, was in Illinois and Iowa, 18 and 19 cents respectively, and the lowest total cost per bushel was in Iowa, South Dakota and Wyoming, where in each case the cost was 30 cents.

This is a splendid and much deserved compliment to our friend Benton. There was a large number of applicants for the position and the fact that they were all older and more experienced men than Kinsolving proves more fully that the faculty fully appreciates his worth.

It is indeed gratifying to see one of our home boys make good in such a magnificent manner. Benton is a young man who enjoys the confidence and esteem of all who know him and we heartily wish and sincerely believe that he will more than make good in his new position.

Yields in bushels and dollars were greatest in the North Atlantic states, where fields averaged only 9 acres in size and $4.50 to $10 worth of commercial fertilizer was applied per acre. The forage of the crop was utilized more completely there than anywhere else, and although much more work was put upon each acre of ground, the net income per acre was $9.73, which was greater than any other part of the United States. The farmers of the Central West and West may learn a lesson from this example of results obtained by thrifty New England farmers. They raise a large crop and use it all. Handicapped by a heavy expense for fertilizers, small fields and a short season, they lead the United States in net returns per acre of corn.

CUT PRICE SALE

NOTICE.

Nothing will be charged to you at cut prices. Nothing will leave the house on approval. One price.

Inaugurated Saturday Morning, May 20th

FILLED OUR STORE TO OVERFLOWING.

Hundreds have already profited by our cut prices, which afford a surprising opportunity to buy the finest CLOTHING, HATS, SHOES, SHIRTS and FURNISHING GOODS in the world, at CUT PRICES in the beginning of the season.

You will wonder why and how we do these things, but there is a wheel within a wheel, and again THIS IS 1911.

Cash is King today. Congress dallies with a tariff schedule that shows a downward tendency on wool. Increased facilities in manufacturing and a great study in economics will bring cheaper prices. Clothing will be cheaper than in former times, but never cheaper than our cut prices of today. The quality standard will be no lower, but the standard price of a suit will be far different from that of former times. Knowing these things, and being a free lance, tied to no firm or manufacturer, receiving no favors, and asking no backing, we are in a position to buy cheap, and from whom we please. Hence we were the first to cut the price, first to see the conditions, and we shall follow up our lead during 1911.

Your dollar has dignity; it represents your brain and labor. Make it do its double duty today at Walsh Bros. The sale of sales will continue until further notice. Come early, get the good clothes at the price of shoddy ones.

The Lorimer Case in Politics.

While The Post is deeply interested in the election of any United States senator, it recognizes the right of every state to choose its own senators without suggestion from the outside. We cannot, however, refrain from expressing our regret at the attempt to make the Lorimer case an issue in the Kentucky senatorial campaign.

When passing upon the election, returns, and qualifications of its members the Senate of the United States acts in a judicial capacity, and every senator is under a solemn oath to decide such questions according to the law and the evidence.

That honest and wise men should vote differently upon such a case will not in the least surprise us when we remember that the greatest and most upright judges of our highest courts reach opposite conclusions upon cases coming before them; but whether a particular case should have been decided one way or the other is scarcely a matter upon which one man should be defeated and another man elected to the Senate.

In voting upon the right of a fellow member to his seat, no senator ought to be influenced by the hope of political advantage or by the fear of political injury. If such cases can be made an issue between rival aspirants for the nomination of a particular party, they must in time become issues between opposing political parties, and we will then come to a time when all questions of that kind will be decided according to political considerations rather than according to the law and the evidence. That condition would demoralize the conscience of the Senate and reduce it in the estimation of all thoughtful men.

Not only should the right of a senator to his seat be determined without fear or favor, and purely upon its merits, and when so determined excluded from political contests, but it is one of the cases which cannot be fairly and intelligently decided by the people when they come to nominate and elect a senator. Of course, the average voter reads the newspapers, and in that way obtains an impression of every case which excites a gen-

Texas the Banner Crop State in the Union.

The value of wealth produced on farms of the United States was $8,926,000,000 during 1910, as estimated by the Department of Agriculture in a statement just issued. This is an increase of $104,000,000 over 1909.

Texas with her ten million acres of cotton, wrested from Illinois during 1910 the honor of being the first State of the Union in point of value of her principal farm crops, which aggregated $364,110,000, an increase of 14.9 per cent. over 1909. Illinois with $290,295,000 dropped to second place, the decrease having been 13.9 per cent. Iowa held her place as third State, while Kansas in 1909 fourth State, dropped to tenth.

Georgia made a rapid stride in crop production for the year, and jumped from tenth to fourth State, with a total of $210,592,000, an increase of 26.5 per cent. over 1909.

All the other Southern States made good increases except Louisiana and Kentucky. South Carolina made the largest, 28.4 per cent., or $140,000,000, jumping from twenty-first to thirteenth State. The other States ranked as follows:

| State.      | 1910. | 1910. | Value.        | Inc. |
|-------------|-------|-------|---------------|------|
| Alabama     | 14    | 20    | $136,857,000 | 19.7 |
| Mississippi | 15    | 18    | 134,401,000   | 10.6 |

The Bird Law.

The Kentucky Statute, Section 1946, reads thus: "No person shall at any time catch, kill or pursue with such intent or have in possession after same has been caught or killed any thrush, mocking bird, meadow lark, finch, swallow, woodpecker, flicker, oriole, redbird, tanager, catbird, bluebird or other song or insectivorous bird. ***"

Around many of our homes in this city these beautiful birds are a continuous delight; in some parts of the city the mocking birds not only delight you by day, but sing you to sleep after your day's work is done. To destroy one of these birds is an act of vandalism that should not be overlooked by our officials.—Morganfield Sun.

Tobacco in Missouri.

A recent dispatch from Jefferson City, Mo., recited that White Burley tobacco is now being grown with remarkable success in more than half of the 114 counties of Missouri. That statement, taken by itself, might lead one to believe that a tremendous crop of tobacco was grown in Missouri in 1910, but the dispatch went on to say that the total production for the year was 7,875,000 pounds, a gain of about 3,000,000 pounds over the year previous.

The figures from Kentucky counties for 1910 are not available, but it is safe to say that in several of these counties the production of tobacco was larger than Missouri's entire crop. Early in 1910 the prediction was made by some of the Missouri newspapers that the tobacco crop for that year would amount to 30,000,000 pounds. On which account some of our Kentucky growers went so far as to speak of Missouri as a possible dangerous rival to Kentucky in tobacco growing. The crop returns for 1910 do not indicate anything of the kind. Missouri seems to be gradually increasing her crop, but she is a long way from fame as a great tobacco-producing State.

May it would not hurt Kentucky very badly if she did lose some of her prestige as a tobacco grower. The situation has not been altogether satisfactory in that particular for a number of years. There are many who believe tobacco production is already too large for the best interests of the farmers. However, that may be, there is no imminent danger that we shall be put out of the tobacco game as the result of the efforts of the farmers of Missouri.
